I would like to share what we do, what we believe in and what we value. Above all else, we are about children, their learning, their needs and even their problems. We are a school which is child centered, so all our efforts and work revolve around the achievement of each students potential, academically, socially and emotionally. We believe that the basic human values of care, concern, compassion, mutual trust and respect will prevail and strengthen our will to tide over the present situation.

We have a staff that's caring, committed and professional. We are flexible and understanding. We inspire, persist, celebrate, heal, listen, model, forgive and encourage.

Lady Florence Convent School sees itself as one such community with our very dear students, the parents, the staff and the management, all as part of it. Today is the time for us to put our faith in each other, to collaborate, show compassion, be tolerant and give each other the strength to sail through these turbulent times.
